(ORAL ORDER)
(Passed on 18th April, 2006)

The following order of the Court was passed by S.R. Nayak, CJ.

A letter written to the Hon'ble Chief Justice of this Court by the petitioner herein complaining that his brother Ramlal, by name, sent his daughter, Kadamkunwar by name, to an unknown place and her whereabouts are not known, was treated as a writ petition and notice was ordered. Shri Pramod Verma, learned Additional Advocate General took notice for the respondents and filed counter. In the counter, it is stated that the Police made necessary investigation and they came to know that the daughter of the petitioner is a married woman and she is happily living with her husband. In view of what is stated in the counter, this Court had directed the State Authorities to produce Smt. Kadamkunwar today. Accordingly, at the time of hearing, Smt. Kadamkunwar appeared before us along with her husband. They seem to be a happy couple and the allegation made by the petitioner seems to be incorrect and mischievous. There is no need for us to take any further steps. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. No costs.
